MEN IN PAGEANT
WILL HOLD REHEARSAL.

There will be an important rehearsal at the Community center Wednesday night at 8 o'clock when Miss Frederica Magnus, dramatic director of the pageant, which will be a feature of the Tercentenary celebration, will meet all the men who take part in the first and second acts. A full attendance is expected as much interest and enthusiasm is manifested by the men who have registered to help make the pageant a brilliant production. Misses Lynn Black and Kathleen Fleming are doing splendid work in directing the dancing groups, the picturesque and spectacular features.

All those who have a part, however small, in the pageana and all those who will contribute the price of admission to the fair on the night of Sept. 25, the night of this gorgeous introduction to the Pligrim Tercentenary celebration, will not only enjoy the art and beauty used to interpret the "Path of Progress," pay tribute to the ideals and the pilgrimage of the Pligrim Fathers, but will enjoy having contributed to a most worthy cause. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the Cripple Children's hospital and the Community center.

East End Temperance Union. The East End Temperance union will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. L. T. Manker, 57:20 East street, for the purpose of closing the year's work and electing officers for the new year.

Lawn Party Postponed.

On account of the inclement weather the lawn party which was to have been given on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. E. E. George, on McLemore avenue, by members of the Baptist Young People's Union of the First Baptist church, has been postponed indefinitely.

Beethoven Club.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Beethoven club will be held at the Woman's building on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. J. F. Hill, the president, requests the chairmen of standing committees to meet with the directors.

MEETINGS OF MEMPHIS WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

The regular meeting of the executive board of the Federation of Parent-Teacher associations will be held Wed-nesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce.

The Mary Latham auxiliary, Children of the Confederacy, will meet Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of the director, Mrs. J. M. Hines, 1747 Overton Park avenue.

News of Rivers

Sept. 12 has been announced as the date when the excursion business of the Mississippi river boats running out of this city will come to an end. The last trip of the Princess as an excursion steamer for the season will be made on that date. She will then be taken over by the Lee line and after being overhauled will be placed in the trade running between Memphis and Caruthersville, Mo., making two trips each week. The steamer Eclipse will make two trips each week between Ashport and Memphis. The steamer Idlewild will continue on her regular run, but may lengthen them to suit the trade.

The Harry Lee cleared the local harbor Tuesday for Helena and Friar Point with a large cargo of freight.

The Eclipse left Tuesday for Caruthersville and way points.

The Idlewild was the regular packet boat between Memphis and Seyppei Landing and other way points. She will return Tuesday night.

The Ossining was the regular packet to Osceola Tuesday worning.

One barge loaded with gugar, coffee, and cotton fles was dropped in the local harber Monday night by the steamer Nokomis, en route to St. Louis.

Gorgeously gowned, Miss Gorden is as radiant in beauty of form and face as of yore, while time has not impaired her tinkling soprano voice. After a term in the pictures she again is in vaudeville with a company of exceptionally clever artists, forming ah act that will stand out on any bill.

The present Gorden turn differs vastly from her has offering to local theatergoers. It is light, airy and reminds much of spring, enough to make one forget that this is September. With a charming miss at the piano, Miss Gorden essays several late songs. There is nothing so particularly difficult about these numbers but with the Gorden personality behind them they are more than passing in worth.

Marvel, with Miss Gorden, is the dancing feature. He is so billed and lives up to what the advertisements [18].

Jack Wi'son, who, in private life, composes one per cent of the Gordon-Wilson sketch, has a laughable skit in which he portrays a negro character. It is clever with enough punch and Wilson is an excellent delineator of this type. The actor-author J. C. Nugent wins
